Past and Perfect Verb Tenses Song

This is a story about Marco Polo
There are lots of things you should know
He was an explorer from Italy
And he lived a long time ago
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh!
He lived a long time ago

He traveled with his father and his uncle
To China in 1271
His father and uncle had been to China before
And had met the great Kublai Khan
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh!
They had met the great Kublai Khan

Well, Marco stayed and worked in China
For seventeen years or so
He has earned his place in history
And so the story goes
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh!
And so the story goes
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh!
And so the story goes!

Marco Polo was a trader and an explorer from Venice, Italy. He was born on September 5, 1241, and he died on January 8, 1324. Marco Polo has earned his place in history for the amazing voyage he made to China.

Marco Polo traveled with his father, Niccolo, and his uncle, Maffio, to China in 1271. His father and his uncle had been to China before, and they had met the great emperor, Kublai Khan, in 1264. Kublai Khan had asked Niccolo and Maffio to return to China to teach his people about European knowledge and culture. When they returned with Marco seven years later, he became a favorite of Kublai Khan, and Marco stayed and worked in China for seventeen years.

A. Complete the time line with the events from the text.
