Writing a Story

Week 33

UNIT 9

A story tells about events or things in the order they happen. A story has characters, a setting, and a problem to be solved. The beginning is the start of the story. It describes the characters and the problem. The middle tells what happens next. The characters try to solve the problem. The end is the last part of the story. It tells how the problem gets solved.

A. Write the paragraph number next to the correct picture.

An Act of Kindness

1. Clara was a beautiful dog. She lived happily in Evans Park. She had three cute puppies. They felt very safe in their home near a big tree.
2. One day a motorcycle came racing through the park. Clara was hurt badly. Her paw was broken. Her puppies were very scared and sad. What was going to happen to her and her puppies?
3. A kind boy named Jeremy saw Clara was hurt. He wanted to help her and her pups. He brought his wagon and put Clara and her pups in it. He took them to his house and cared for them. Clara and her pups were happy. They had a wonderful new home!

Writing a Story

Week 33

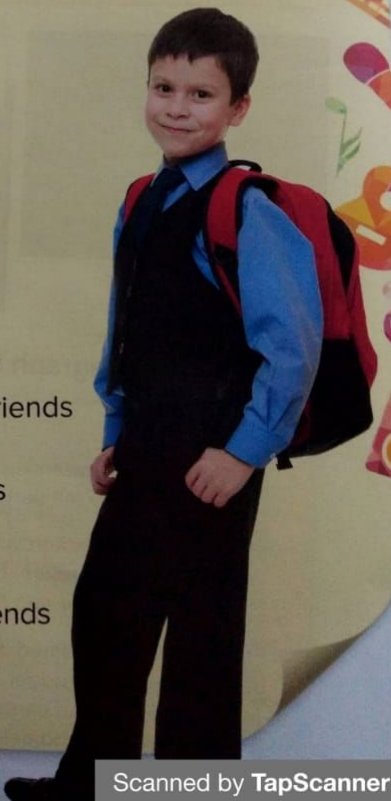

B. Sing the song.

Story Song

This is a story
A simple little story
About a boy named Joe
One Monday morning at about eight o'clock
Off to school he did go
This was his first day in a brand new school
And Joe was feeling scared
He didn't know the teacher
He didn't have any friends
He didn't know anyone there

When Joe got to school
He went in his classroom
And stood all alone at the back
Then a boy came over and said
"Hello. How are you? My name is Jack."
Then Jack introduced Joe to all of his friends
And by the end of the day
Joe was happy and made lots of friends
And they all went out to play

Yes, Joe was happy and made lots of friends
And they all went out to play

Characters are the people or animals in a story. Usually there is a main character and a secondary character. Use adjectives to tell about their characteristics. Use adverbs to tell about their actions.
